

Lawrence W. Falwell
Lynchburg, Virginia

Inducted in 1991, Lawrence W. Falwell has been active in aviation for over 40 years. He received his private pilot certificate from fellow Hall of Fame member Woody Edmondson in 1946 and later received his instrument, multi-engine and ATR ratings. Appointed to the Virginia Advisory Committee on Aviation in 1969, he began a career of dedicated public service. Falwell was appointed an FAA Designated Flight Examiner in 1969 and served on the Greater Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce Aviation Committee and the Regional Airport Study Committee. Currently serves as the secretary, treasurer and chief pilot of Falwell Aviation, Inc.